

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing in application for the front-end developer position at GMR as advertised in indeed.com.

My training and experience in the field of computer programming and web design, along with my ability to HTML, CSS make me the perfect candidate for the job. I know that I would be a valuable addition to the team at GMR.

I have a graduation from Daffodil International University and have more than 2 years of experience as a front-end developer. I have good knowledge of React UI, Bootstrap, JQuery, Flexbox and Other css Framework.

In my most recent role at Tiger IT Bangladesh, I

- Implemented websites, mobile applications UI, and management system(HRM) from concept through deployment.
- Collaborating closely with the team to support projects during all phases of delivery.
- Building websites and apps that are responsive and usable.
- Maintaining an organized workflow using a project management tool (like GitLab)

The mention position seems like the perfect combination of my background and career objectives with your needs. Please find enclosed my resume with details of education and work experiences. If you have any questions about my qualifications or interest in this position please contact me. I look forward to speaking with you and have the opportunity to join your team.

Sincerely,

Radwan Ahmed
